Host/Sponsor of Activity: Mississippi Association of Broadcasters
University of Southern Mississippi School of Mass Communication & Journalism

Participating Station

Personnel: Tom Colt, Operations Manager

Description of activity and scope of station participation:

Tom Colt, Operations Manager of Blakeney Communications, participated, along with representatives of other broadcast members of the Mississippi Association of Broadcasters in “MAB on Campus” in College Hall at the University of Southern Mississippi. The program began at 10:00 AM and concluded at 2:30 PM and included networking, interviews, resume and portfolio reviews with sophomores, juniors and seniors planning careers in radio or television broadcasting.

The event also allowed MAB station representatives to have lunch with select students and faculty of the Mass Communication and Journalism Department of the University of Southern Mississippi followed by panel discussions that featured various broadcasters speaking and answering questions from students about each broadcaster’s area of expertise. The theme of this year’s panel discussion was “Future of the Local Broadcast”, although the discussions were not limited to this topic. Minority and female students were very well represented among the students who participated and Tom Colt as well as other Mississippi Association of Broadcasters station representatives interacted with many students including minority and female students interested in pursuing careers in broadcasting.
